

pay a poll-tax to Caesar, or not?' " (T)

Luke 6:1-4 -- "Now it came about that on a certain Sabbath He was passing through some grainfields; and His disciples were picking and eating the heads of grain, rubbing them in their hands. But some of the Pharisees said, 'Why do you do what is not lawful on the Sabbath?' And Jesus answering them said, 'Have you not even read what David did when he was hungry, he and those who were with him, how he entered the house of God, and took and ate the consecrated bread which is not lawful for any to eat except the priests alone, and gave it to his companions?' " (T), (ML)

Luke 6:6-10-- "And it came about on another Sabbath, that He entered the synagogue and was teaching; and there was a man there whose right hand was withered. And the scribes and the Pharisees werewatching Him closely, to see if He healed on the Sabbath, in order that they might find reason to accuse Him. But He knew what they were thinking, and He said to the man with the withered hand, 'Rise, and come forward!' And he rose and came forward. And Jesus said to them, 'I ask you, is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good, or to do harm, to save a life, or to destroy it?' And after looking around at them all, He said to him, 'Stretch out your hand!' And he did so; and his hand was restored." (ML)

Luke 14:1-4 -- "And it came about when He went into the house of one of the leaders of the Pharisees on the Sabbath to eat bread, that they were watching Him closely. And there, in front of Him was a certain man suffering from dropsy. And Jesus answered and spoke to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, 'Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath, or not? But they kept silent. And He took hold of him, and healed him, and sent him away.'" (ML)

Luke 20:21-22 -- "And they (the spies sent by the scribes and the chief priests) questioned Him, saying, 'Teacher, we know that you speak and teach correctly, and You are not partial to any, but teach the way of God in truth. Is it lawful for us to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?' " (T)

John 5:8-10 -- "Jesus said to him (the sick man lying beside the pool of Bethesda), 'Arise, take up your pallet, and walk.' And immediately the man became well, and took up his pallet and began to walk. Now it was the Sabbath on that day. Therefore the Jews were saying to him who was cured, 'It is the Sabbath, and it is not permissible for you to carry your pallet.'" (T)

John 18:31 -- "Pilate therefore said to them, 'Take Him yourselves, and judge Him according to your law.' The Jews said to him, 'We are not permitted to put anyone to death.' " (RL)

Acts 2:29 -- "Brethren, I may confidently say to you (lit., "it is lawful or "permissible" to speak freely to you) regarding the patriarch David that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day." (P)

Acts 8:37 -- "And Philip said, 'If you believe with all your heart, you may (lit., "it is permitted"). And he answered and said, 'I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God' " (P)

Acts 16:20-21 -- "And when they (the masters of the slave-girl who had a spirit of divination) had brought them (Paul and Silas) to the chief magistrates, they said, 'These men are throwing our city into confusion, being Jews, and are proclaiming customs which it is not lawful for us to accept
