

G. Have the influences of Secular Humanism so permeated our society and culture that there is no hope of remediation, or is it still possible to turn things around? If there is hope, what will it take to do it?

1. Realistically and practically, is remediation impossible or possible?

2. What will it take to turn the tide, if remediation is possible?

H. What specific things should I do to respond to the challenge of Secular Humanism?

1. What specific things should I do as soon as possible?

2. What specific things should I do during the next month?

3. What specific things should I do during the next year?
