

5. Only those who are spiritually alive can manifest genuine spiritual life.

6. Therefore Old Testament believers must have been spiritually alive or regenerate.

From the foregoing considerations, it would appear that, on theological grounds, it is not possible to deny regeneration to Old Testament believers.