However, if all three levels are essential, how should they be related? What model can be constructed to properly relate these levels? Montgomery provides us with such a model.