

He sees and knows everything I think and say and do, so that I can do whatever is my lot in life to do with a view to the glory of God, knowing that He will take note of it and use it to bring glory to the triune God?

How can this doctrine of the Spirit's omnipresence become personal, meaningful, vital, and very practical to me? By learning to practice the conscious awareness of the presence of God the Spirit, and by learning to recognize the fact that He is always with me, and I am always in His presence.

"Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove, With all Thy quickening powers
Kindle a flame of sacred love In these cold hearts of ours.

Look how we grovel here below, Fond of these trifling toys;
Our souls can neither fly nor go To reach eternal joys.

In vain we tune our formal songs, in vain we strive to rise;
Hosannas languish on our tongues, And our devotion dies.

Dear Lord, and shall we ever live At this poor dying rate?
Our love so faint, so cold to Thee, And Thine to us so great!

Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove, With all Thy quickening powers;
Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love, And that shall kindle ours.

Amen."
(Isaac Watts)
