

thereby being freed from the mastery of sin, so believers have been raised from spiritual death to spiritual life, thereby being freed from the mastery of sin.

As Christ has been raised physically in order to live continually to the glory of God, so believers have been raised spiritually in order to live continually to the glory of God.