

- (2) In the New Testament the verb λογίζομαι is used 41 times. This word is used in the following Scriptures.

Acts 19:27 -- "And not only is there danger that this trade of ours falls into disrepute, but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis be regarded as worthless and that she who, all of Asia and the world worship should even be dethroned from her magnificence."

Romans 2:26 -- "If therefore the uncircumcised man keep the requirements of the Law, will not his uncircumcision be regarded as circumcision?"

Romans 14:14 -- "I know and am convinced in the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean in itself; but to him who thinks anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean."

I Corinthians 4:1 -- "Let a man regard us in this manner, as servants of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God."

II Corinthians 5:18-19 -- "Now all these things are from God, who reconciled us to Himself through Christ, and gave us the ministry of reconciliation, namely, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and He has committed to us the word of reconciliation."

Galatians 3:6 -- "Even so Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness."

Philippians 3:13 -- "Brethren, I do not regard myself as having laid hold of it yet; but one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and reaching forward to what lies ahead."

II Timothy 4:16 -- "At my first defense no one supported me, but all deserted me; may it not be counted against them."

Hebrews 11:19 -- "He (Abraham) considered that God is able to raise men even from the dead; from which he also received him back as a type."

Also in the New Testament the verb ἐλλογέω is used twice.

Romans 5:13 -- "for until the Law sin was in the world; but sin is not imputed when there is no law."

Philemon 18 -- "But if he has wronged you in any way, or owes you anything, charge that to my account;"
