

this, 'You shall not commit adultery, You shall not murder, You shall not steal, You shall not covet,' and if there is any other commandment, it is summed up in this saying, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' Love does no wrong to a neighbor; love therefore is a fulfillment of the law."

James 2:8-12 -- "If, however, you are fulfilling the royal law, according to the Scripture, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself,' you are doing well. But if you show partiality, you are committing sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors. For whoever keeps the whole law and yet stumbles in one point, he has become guilty of all. For He who said, 'Do not commit adultery,' also said, 'Do not commit murder.' Now if you do not commit adultery, but do commit murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. So speak and so act, as those who are to be judged by the law of liberty."

Psalm 119:44-45 -- "So I will keep Thy law continually, Forever and ever. And I will walk at liberty, For I seek Thy precepts."

Matthew 22:35-40 -- "And one of them, a lawyer, asked Him a question, testing Him. 'Teacher, which is the great commandment in the Law?' And He said to him, 'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.' This is the great and foremost commandment. And a second is like it, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' On these two commandments depend the whole Law and the Prophets."

Romans 8:4, 7 -- "In order that the requirement of the Law might be fulfilled in us, who do not walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit . . . because the mind set on the flesh is hostile toward God; for it does not subject itself to the Law of God, for it is not even able to do so;"

James 4:11 -- "Do not speak against one another, brethren. He who speaks against a brother, or judges his brother, speaks against the law, and judges the law; but if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law, but a judge of it."

Psalm 40:7-8; Hebrews 10:5-7; I John 2:6 -- "Then I said, 'Behold, I come; in the scroll of the book it is written of me;' I delight to do Thy will, O my God; Thy law is within my heart." "Therefore, when He comes into the world, He says, 'Sacrifice and offering Thou hast not desired, But a body Thou hast prepared for Me; in whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin Thou hast taken no pleasure.' Then I said, 'Behold, I have come (In the roll of the book it is written of Me) To do Thy will, O God.' " "the one who says he abides in Him ought himself to walk in the same manner as He walked."

James 1:22-25 -- "But prove yourselves doers of the word, and not merely hearers who delude themselves. For if any one is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks at his natural face in a mirror; for once he has looked at himself and gone away, he has immediately forgotten what kind of person he was. But one who looks intently at the perfect law, the law of
