

In the fourth stage (after entire sanctification), the evil qualities of his nature are obliterated, and the good qualities are made perfectly new and holy. This state is possible only at death or at Christ's Coming.